WINERY

The Zago’s family cultivate its own vineyards, extended about 18 hectares.

The research and innovation that has been applied to each technique adopted in the vineyards and cellar are part of a company philosophy that passionately respects the traditional values of the Veneto peasant culture …

This can be seen in the warm welcome that Luigino, with his sons Chiara and Federico, offers to those who visit the premises where the wine is sold, produced and aged, situated still today on “La Bottera” family estate.

The Luigino Zago winery directly supervises all stages of production from management of the vineyards to marketing and selling the wine and is therefore able to guarantee total quality to its customers.

Its production of Piave wines and wine from Treviso area is truly unique.

The winery is open to your visits, for discover with the Zago's family the whole production of typical wines of Piave and Treviso.

Wine tourists are welcome, curiouses to discover our beautiful area, local history and products of traditional Venetian food.

Maserada sul Piave is located on the outskirts of Treviso, half an hour from Venice.

To provide a suitable reception, facilities that have an arrangement are available.
