

Paladin family presents its wineries: Castello Bonomi, Vescine, Bosco del Merlo, Paladin

CASTELLO BONOMI – FRANCIACORTA

Castello Bonomi, the only Chateau in the Franciacorta area, stands at 275 metres above the sea level on the slopes of Monte Orfano, in Coccaglio. The estate stretches over 24 hectares; the terraced vineyards are surrounded by an age-old park, in a territory filled with history and charm. Castello Bonomi presents Cru Perdu brut, a special blend of Chardonnay and Pinot noir, obtained from the oldest vineyard of the Chateau, and Satèn, the triumph of an excellent Chardonnay.

VÈSCINE – RADDA IN CHIANTI

Vescine is located in the heart of Chianti Classico, in a magnificent suburb back to the XIII century, today a beautiful winery and countryside Relais. The ancient structure of medieval village is perfectly preserved in the 42 natural hectares that surround Vescine. They form a beautiful park and terraced vineyards till a high of 600 metres above the sea level. Vescine invokes the peace of an uncontaminated landscape in the Chianti hills, but it is easy reachable from Firenze (42 km) and Siena (20 km). All Vescine Chiantis are produced in the historical cellar of Castelvecchi, which dates back to the X-XI centuries. Awarded by the most recognized wine Guides, and winner of different concourses, Chianti Classico and Chianti Classico Lodolaio riserva well represent Vescine production philosophy.
